

PRESS RELEASE.

Date : The Hague, 16 August , 2012.

TOMORROW WE WILL PRESS CHARGES AGAINST PRESIDENT PAUL KAGAME IN THE ICC

Tomorrow, 17/8/2012, together with, and on behalf of, the Rwandan opposition platform FDU-INKINGI/RWANDA NATIONAL CONGRESS (RNC), Jambo asbl, RIFDP (Canada, Belgium, Netherlands) and DRC organisations, Barrister Christopher C. Black, Counsel to the Complainants, will be at the International Criminal Court (ICC) in the Hague, Netherlands, at 11:30 am , to officially submit charges against President Paul Kagame and his accomplices over war crimes, crimes against humanity and acts of genocide in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

The Office of the Prosecutor's Information and Evidence Unit (IEU) will receive his article 15 communication on 17 August 2012 at 11:30 am.

With this historic action, Rwandans, Congolese, Africans and the rest of the international community will expect the International Criminal Tribunal to investigate, prosecute, and bring to account President Paul Kagame and his accomplices for crimes committed against Rwandans and Congolese people.

JUSTICE SHALL PREVAIL !
